SALVA-TOR MUNDI.

ABERDENE, Printed by JOHN FORBES 1670.

TO THE

HIGH

MAJESTIE

of King

CHARLES

The Epistle.

Dread Soveraign,
I with pains and Heare have took,
From out the greatest Book this little Book.

The Epistle.

And with great reverence I have cul'd from thence, All things that are of greatest consequence.

And

The Epiſtle.

And though the Volume and the Work be ſmal,

Yet it containes the ſum of All in All.

To

The Epistle.

To you I give it, with a heart most fervent

And rest your humble subject, and your servant,

Jo. Taylor.

To the Reader.

HEre, Reader, mayst thou read for little cost, How thou wast
ransom'd when thou quite wast lost.

Mans

To the Reader.

Mans graceleſs-neſs, and Gods ex-ceeding grace,

Thou here muſt read, and ſee, in lit-tle ſpace.

J. TAYLOR.

S. Matthew.

LO here the blessed Son of God & man.
New born, who was before all worlds began.

Of

S. Matthew.

O heav'nly ſeed th'eternal living Rock
Of humane race, of Kingly Davids ſtock.

Our

S. Matthew.

Our blest Redeemer, whom the Prophets old,

In their true preachings had so oft fore-told,

In

S. Matthew.

In figures, ceremonies, types, and tropes:

He here fulfils their words, confirms their hopes.

The

S. Matthew.

The worlds ſal-vations ſole and oral ſum,

Poor mankinds
avior. Jeſus Chriſt s come.

S. Matthew.

From married Mary, wife, and virgin, ſprings This heavenly, earthly, ſupreme
King of Kings.
Hee

S. Matthew.

Hee's naked born, and in a manger laid,
Where he and's mother (blessed wife and maid)

S. Matthew.

Are by the Wise men sought, and seeking, found;

And having found, their joyes do all abound.

Where

S. Matthew.

Where they their love, their zeal, their faith unfold,
And offer incense, myrrhe, and purest gold.

S. Matthew.

False-hearted Herod seeketh to destroy This new-born Infant, our eternal joy.

But

S. Matthew.

But Joseph by a dream is warn'd by night, T'ward Egypt with the Babe to take his flight.

S. Matthew.

Amongſt th'E gyptians he no long ſojourns,
But back to Na
z'reth he again re turns.

To

S. Matthew.

To end the Law,
the Babe was cir-cumcis'd,
And then by John in Jordan was bap-tiz'd.

When

S. Matthew.

When lo the Father from his glorious throne, Sends down the holy Ghost upon his Son,

In

S. Matthew.

In likeneſs of a pure unſpotted Dove,

Which did his birth and baptiſm both approve.

Now

S. Matthew.

Now ſubtil ſa-tan he attempts,
and tempts him,
And faſting, to the wilderneſs exempts him.

But

S. Matthew.

But Jesus power the foul fiends power destroy'd, Commanding satan hence, Avoid,
avoid.

The

S. Matthew.

The fearful fiend doth flee, Christ goes & preacheth,
And in the mountain multitudes he teacheth.

He

S. Matthew.

He said, Repenance wipes away transgressions,
And to the gody he pronounced lessings.

He

S. Matthew.

He makes the lame to go, the blind to see,
Deaf hear, dumb speak, the lepers cleansed be.

The

S. Matthew.

The devils from the possessed our he drave,

The dead are rais'd, the poor the Gospel have.

S. Matthew.

Such things he doth, as none but God can do;
And all's to bring his flock his fold unto.

S. Matthew.

All that are laden, come to me, saith he,
And I will ease you, therefore come to me.

S. Matthew.

You of your hea-vie sins I do ac-quite:

My yoke is easie,
and my burden's light.

Upon

S. Matthew.

Upon Mount Ta- bor, there our bleſt Meſſias Doth ſhow himſelf, with Moſes and Elias.

Yet all the mighty wonde
that he wrought, Nor all th
heav'nly teaching that he taught,

Th

s. Matthew.

The ſtiff-neck'd ubborn Jews could not convert,
But they remain bdurate, hard of heart.

s. Matthew.

The man (ſaith

things are done,
It is the Ca perers, poor Jo ſephs ſon.

Som

s. Matthew.

Some laid how e thefe things to pafs did bring,
By power of Belzebub, th'infernal King.

Thus

s. Matthew.

Thus with the poyson of their envious tongues,
They guerdon good with ill, and fight with wrongs.
His

s. Matthew.

His own not knows him, Judas doth betray him.

To Annas and to Caiphas they convey him.

From

s. Matthew.

From Caiphas back to Annas, and from thence Is sent this everlasting blessed Prince.

Thus

s. Matthew.

Thus is this death, this sin, this Satan-killer,
'Mongst sinful wretches, rolt from post to piller.

Hee's

s. Matthew.

Hee's ſhouted, ſpitted on, derided, ſtript,
He's moſt unmercifully ſcourg'd, and whipt.

By

S. Matthew.

By impious people he's blaſphem'd, & rail'd.

And of the Jews (in ſcorn) as King is hail'd.

He

S. Matthew.

He like a lam unto his death led:

Nail'd on th Crofs for man, h heart-blood fhed

H

S. Matthew.

He, after three days, glorious doth arile:

He leaves the finful earth, and mounts the skyes.

S. Matthew.

But first to his Disciples he appears, Where he their drooping half-dead spirit cheers.

S. Mark

S. Mark.

SAint Mark declares how blest baptizing John.
Fore-runner was of Gods eternal Son.

S. Mark.

Which John in wilderneſs baptizes, teaches,

And of contrition and remiſſion preaches.

S. Mark.

Our Savior calls no Pharisees or Scribes,
Or princely people out of Judahs Tribes;

S. Mark.

But Simon, Andrew James, and John, are those Poor toyling fisher-men, which

Jesus chose,

T

S. Mark.

To ſhow that with the humbleſt ſmalleſt things, God greateſt matters to perfection brings.

S. Mark.

By ſundry wonderous works our Savior Jeſus,

From ſin and ſatan labʳeth to releaſe us.

And

S. Mark.

And in requi-al, the ungrateful Jews,

Deviſe their bleſt Redeemer to abuſe.

Some

S. Mark.

Some inwardly do hate him, some belye him:

His servants all forsake him, or deny him.

But

S. Mark.

But Peter thou waſt bleſt in thy denyal,
Of thy preſu-ming thou haſt found the tryal.

Re-

S. Mark.

Repentance wash away thy frail ie crimes,

And thou a pa tern art to alter times.

The

S. Mark.

The son and heir of never-fading heaven,
Into the hands of sinful men is given.

And aged Simeon in his armes doth take,

The Lord of life and doth rejoy cings make.

Chri

S. Luke.

Christ teacheth, preacheth mercy unto all,
That by amendment will for mercy call.

S. Luke.

Hee's tane, and by falſe witneſſes accus'd, Hee's beaten ſcoffed, ſcorned and abus'd.

Hee'

S. Luke.

Hee's hang'd upon the crosse betwixt two thieves.

The one doth rail on him, and one believes.

S. Luke.

He dies, he's buried; rising, he doth quell

And conquer all his foes, sin, death, and hell.

S. John.

IN the beginning was th'eternal Word,

The Word with God was, and that was the Lord.

S. John.

In the beginning the same Word with God Was, and for e ver hath with hi abode.

S. John.

With it were all things made, and made was nought Without this Word, the which was made or wrought.

S. John.

Here Christs Divinity is told by John,

The blessed Tri-nitie, one three three one,

How

S. John.

How God had now perform'd the oath he ſwore

To Abram, and to Iſrael long before,

How

S. John.

How Christ should come to ransome Adams loss.

And satisfie Gods justice on the Cross.

Thoug

S. John.

Though times and places far in ſunder be, Yet Prophets and Evangeliſts agree.

S. John.

In Jesus birth,
his doctrine, life,
and death,
Whereby our dying souls gain living breath.

them, who are all inspir'd
With learned languages, adorn'd admir'd.

Sain

Acts.

Saint Peter preaching, tels the people plain,

How they the living Lord of life had slain.

Acts.

Some flout and mock, remaining stubborn-hearted:
And many soul perverted, are converted.

Th

Acts.

The Church increaſes, dayly numbers comes,

And to the Goſpels furthring give great ſums.

Acts.

heads.

Th'A-

Romans.

Th' Apostle Paul
from Corinth
writes to Rome,
To strengrh their faith, and tell them Christ is come.

He

Romans.

He shows how high and low, both Jew and Greek,

Are one with God, who faithfully him seek.

He

Romans.

He tels how ſin in mortal bodies lurks:

How we are ſav'd by faith, and not by works.

In

Romans.

In loving terms the people he doth move

To faith, to hope, to charity & love.

Paul

1. Corinthians.

PAul to Corinthus from Philippy sends,
Their zeal and faith he lovingly commends.

He

1. Corinthians.

He tels them if Gods service they regard,

Th'eternal crown of life is their reward.

In

2. Corinthians.

IN this saint Paul ſends the Corin-thians word,

Afflictions are the bleſſings of the Lord.

H

2. Corinthians.

He doth desire their faith may still increase:

He wishes their prosperitie and peace.

Galatians.

He tells her manner wh Salvation stan
Is it in Christ and not in Mos Laws.

Th

Galatians.

The law's a glass where men their sins do see,
And that by Christ we only saved be.

Ephesians.

PAul bids cast off the old man with his vice,
And put on Christ, our blest re-demptions price.

He

Philippians.

HE bids them of false Teachers to beware:

He tells them that humilitie is rare.

And though they live here in a vale of ſtrife, Yet for them is laid up the crown of life.

Th'A-

Coloſsians.

TH'Apoſtle doth rejoyce, and praiſeth God,

That theſe Coloſsians in true faith abode.

Coloſsians.

He praiſeth them, he bids them watch and pray,

That ſin and ſatan work not their decay.

He

1. Theſſalonians.

HE thanketh God his labor's not in vain,
So ſtedfaſt in the faith theſe men remain,
That

1. Thessalonians.

That they to others are a blessed light,

By their example how to live upright.

Again

2. Theſſalonians.

AGain to them he lovingly doth write.

He bids them pray, the Goſpel proſper might.

He

He withereth them proſperity and wealth,

And in the end ſoules everlaſting health.

Paul

1. & 2. to Timothy.

Paul ſhowes to Timothy, a Biſhop muſt

In life and doctrine be ſincere and juſt.

And

And how the Scriptures powe have to perſwade, Whereby the ma of God is perfe made.

Hebrews.

And that the ceremonial Law is ended

In Christ, in whom all grace is comprehended.

Hear

S. James.

HEar, speak, and do well, the Apostle saith;
For by thy works, a man may see thy faith.

1. & 2. to Peter.

HE counsels us,
be sober, watch,
and pray,
And still be ready for the Judgement day.

He

1. 2. & 3. of John.

HIthorto Christ
dy'd, and from the grave arose, To save his friends, and to confound his foes.

S. Jude.
